School Report

School opened Sept. 29, 1913, in the new schoolhouse, with a registration of ten pupils. There were five scholars in the first grade, two in the second, one in the third, one in the fifth, and one in the sixth. After a term of twelve weeks school closed for the Christmas holidays, beginning again January 5, with the same number of scholars. February 27 the school closed for one week's vacation. When it began again two new pupils were added to the former number.

The schoolroom is well lighted and heated. It is furnished with adjustable seats and desks, slate blackboards, wall maps and all necessary books and supplies.
